Technical Editing of the SPRFMO CMMs
Secretariat

At the 2015 Commission Meeting, some Members requested that the Secretariat produce a compilation of effective SPRFMO Conservation and Management Measures so that they could be downloaded as one document.

In response to this request, the Secretariat harmonised the formats and initiated a proofing of the CMMs with the intent to obtain a clean version which would include corrections of a non-substantive, purely technical nature. Australia, Chile, the European Union, New Zealand and Chinese Taipei participated in this endeavour and a table containing all the corrections agreed upon by this group (with exception of very insignificant edits e.g. spelling) was circulated to all Members on 20 May 2015 (see attached).

It was then decided to propose these corrections to the Commission for discussion at its 2016 meeting.

This paper is being provided to assist the CTC in its consideration of developing a procedure for the continuous technical editing (proofing) of the SPRFMO CMMs.

Corrections as at 20 May 2015 incorporating feedback received from Members

	Footnote 3	3 This total includes the vessel Lafayette. Operational fishing data, in accordance with the consolidated data standards, has not been supplied to the Secretariat in respect of this vessel and information supplied by some delegations indicates that the vessel probably was not capable of fishing in either 2009 or 2010. Some delegations requested the GT for this vessel (49,173 GT) should be held in abeyance pending receipt of operational fishing information. The Russian delegation stated that vessel Lafayette has duly obtained all certificates from the Russian Maritime Register of Shipping to be qualified for the fishing class; the vessel has undergone initial physical inspections and subsequent annual surveys to confirm its ability to be engaged in direct fishing operations.	3 This total includes the vessel Lafayette.
