COMMISSION FOR THE SOUTH PACIFIC REGIONAL FISHERIES MANAGEMENT ORGANISATION

Advertised Role: EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

The Commission for the South Pacific Regional Fisheries Management Organisation (SPRFMO) invites applications for the position of Executive Secretary.

SPRFMO is an international organisation responsible for the conservation and management of non-highly migratory fishery resources in the Convention Area. The Secretariat of the Commission for the SPRFMO is headquartered in Wellington, New Zealand. The Executive Secretary is responsible for the management and supervision of the Secretariat and the provision of advice to the Commission.

The Executive Secretary is required to carry out, inter alia, the duties provided in Article 14 of the Convention, the Commission's foundation instruments,¹ and any other such duties as may be directed by the Commission. In making an appointment to the position of the Executive Secretary, the SPRFMO Commission will be guided by the following selection criteria:

1. Demonstrated management knowledge and skills through relevant experience in national, regional or international organisations;
2. Knowledge or experience of fisheries management;
3. Knowledge or experience of the functions and operations of intergovernmental organisations at the regional or international level;
4. Knowledge or experience of such areas as: preparation of reports, financial budgets and management of expenditures; provision of secretariat support for international meetings; oversight and management of information technology; human resource management;
5. Demonstrated ability to communicate and work constructively and effectively in a multicultural environment with delegates from a wide range of countries, including managers, scientists and technical experts;
6. Fluent in English (the knowledge of other languages of SPRFMO Members would be an asset);
7. University degree or the equivalent, with a preference given to an advanced degree (Master or PhD) or equivalent.

The appointment of the Executive Secretary is for a term of four years. At the discretion of the Contracting Parties of SPRFMO, the Executive Secretary may be re-appointed for a further four years.

The SPRFMO Commission has adopted the salary scales applying to officials of the United Nations Secretariat. The starting salary for the SPRFMO Executive Secretary will correspond to the rate applying to a P5, Step 1 official in the United Nations Secretariat unless otherwise decided by the Commission on the basis of relative qualifications, skills and experience. Salaries shall be paid in New Zealand dollars.

Applications must be submitted in English and in an electronic format. They must be addressed to the Chairperson (chairperson@sprfmo.int and ourrutia@subpesca.cl) and copied to the Secretariat (secretariat@sprfmo.int). They must be received no later than Monday 10 August 2020 at 17:00 New Zealand Standard time (UTC/GMT +12:00). Applications received after this deadline will not be considered.

¹ Including the Commission's Rules of Procedure, Financial Regulations and Staff Regulations

Applications must include the following:

1. A cover letter to the Chairperson of the Commission for the SPRFMO containing a statement of the applicant's interest in the position and a succinct description of the applicant's relevant experience and abilities.
2. Curriculum Vitae.
3. Certificate issued by a competent medical doctor indicating that the applicant is in good health condition.

In addition, the application should include letters of reference from up to two persons with a recent knowledge of the applicant's character, qualifications and experience.

Candidates are encouraged to familiarise themselves with the key documents in force within the Commission, including the Convention and its Rules of Procedure, Staff Regulations and Financial Regulations.

SPRFMO will follow the Recruitment Procedure described in Decision 5-2017.

The short-listed candidates will be notified before 31 October and invited to attend the next Meeting of the SPRFMO Commission in St Petersburg, Russia for an interview with the representatives of the Contracting Parties to the SPRFMO Convention. The expenses to attend this meeting will be covered by SPRFMO. The interviews will be held one day between 25 to 29 January 2021. Further details will be given in December 2020

The process may be subject to changes by SPRFMO Contracting Parties depending on the evolution of the current worldwide sanitary crisis due to COVID-19. Such changes will be informed on a timely basis.

For further information, applicants should write to the address above or consult the SPRFMO website www.sprfmo.int.
